

The Temple – Congregation Ohabai Sholom

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

5015 Harding Road
Nashville, TN 37205
(615) 352-7620
www.templenashville.org

CONTACT: Joyce Friedman, President 615-714-1666
joyceefriedman@gmail.com

Temple's Got Talent Premieres Sun., March 10

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (February 13, 2018) – You've seen the hit TV talent show America's Got Talent. Now Nashville has its very own version, Temple's Got Talent, debuting Sun., March 10, 2019 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The evening, featuring Music City's amateur talent with stardom on their minds, will include singers, dancers, and musicians. All contestants will take the stage and perform live to compete for First, Second and Third Place prizes, as well as an Audience Choice Award.

Temple's Got Talent, Nashville's new community talent show, will be held at The Temple – Congregation Ohabai Sholom, located at 5015 Harding Place, Nashville, Tenn., 37205, next door to the Belle Meade Mansion. The public is invited to attend.

These acts, representing a variety of talent from across the Middle Tenn. region, will be judged by renowned professionals in the entertainment and music industry as well as by audience votes.

Special guest Olivia Faye, (oliviafaye.com), an up and coming singer/songwriter, will be performing her original songs while the judges are tabulating their results. She hails from Kentucky and made her move to Nashville two years ago to focus on songwriting, recording and performing.

"We have some awesome acts lined up," said Neal Spielberg, owner of Spielberg Entertainment & Consulting, one of several event coordinators involved in the show's launch. "It's going to be an entertaining show that brings the whole Nashville community together to celebrate the abounding talent in this town."

Tickets can be purchased online at talent.templenashville.org. Ticket prices are:

- $25 for Reserved seating
- $15 for Adults
- $10 for Children 3-12 years old
- Under 2 years old, Free
- $20 at the Door

There will also be concessions available throughout the evening, with pre-sold boxed picnic dinners available online. All proceeds will benefit The Temple.

For tickets, go to talent.templenashville.org. For more information, contact templesgottalent@gmail.com, or Temple President Joyce Friedman at (615) 714-1666. Sponsorship and volunteer opportunities are still available.

About The Temple

Established in 1851, The Temple - Congregation Ohabai Shalom is Nashville's oldest and largest Jewish house of worship, practicing Reform Judaism, a progressive, liberal sect of Judaism. It serves the religious needs of over 750 families in Middle Tennessee, including southern Kentucky. For more information visit about The Temple, visit www.templenashville.org.

#